

Gidge Gossips June 2016

What a week – settling the Small Farm Field Day down. GPA meeting and then Toodyay Road Liaison Committee Meeting – when are the younger element in Gidge going to step up? If you don't do it all these things will die.

Mobile Phone towers. Ken Wyatt our member for Hasluck (and that is where we are for this election) sends the following link about what is one of the most important issues in this electorate – Telecommunications

It will be interesting to see when the mobile phone towers/NBN towers come up for community consultation, what reaction we get. Already people saying they don't want a Mobile phone tower near them – don't they use a mobile phone? Don't their kids use one? Are they up to date on the present technology? Just know so many people have put a great deal of work in getting these towers to happen, do the opponents really know what they are talking about?

Kasanova is back home and that had better be it. Many thanks to the Pavy family for helping with his repatriation. He is now behind three gates and a front fence to stop him straying. Next stop will be Muchea.

Great that we now don't need fire permits – as we are knee deep in green grass this would have seemed obvious but not the Fire Brigades fault – Bureaucracy ruled and they helped to move it.

We have a new OIC at Mundaring – Jeff Taylor and very much on the ball. Spike of petty crime, which happens every now and then. Jeff and the team are on top of this. Jeff will be attending the next GPA meeting 20th June, 2016 – come along and meet him.

Seems the Toodyay Road Clean up went well – now the crew want another one in 6 months, a year? Whatever the Road looks a 100% cleaner. Many thanks to all of them and they had a great time. Join them.

Just a word about the Footie – a couple of years ago I was given a wooden spoon by a certain Friendly Hills Plumber – mate it could be on its way back!

Now a joke from Jan again and apologies to our Jewish readers but relatively harmless. Expect better of me once the Field Day is over.

Two old Jewish men, Sid and Abe, are sitting in a Mexican restaurant one day.

Sid asks Abe, "Do you know if any people of our ancestry were ever born and raised in Mexico?"

Abe replies, "I don't know, let's ask our waiter."

When the waiter arrives, Abe asks, "Are there any Mexican Jews?"

The waiter says, "I don't know senor, I ask the cooks."

"He returns from the kitchen after a few minutes and says,

"No senor, the cook say no Mexican Jews."

Abe isn't satisfied and asks, "Are you absolutely sure?"

The waiter, realizing he is dealing with "Gringos" replies,

"I check once again, senor," and goes back into the kitchen.

While the waiter is away, Sid says, "I find it hard to believe that there are no Jews in Mexico ... our people are scattered everywhere."

The waiter returns and says,

"Senor, the head cook Manuel, he say there is no Mexican Jews."

"Are you certain?" Abe asks again. "I just can't believe there are no Mexican Jews!"

"Senor, I ask EVERYONE," replies the exasperated waiter.

"All we have is Orange Jews, Grape Jews, Prune Jews, Tomato Jews and Apple Jews, but no Mexican Jews."
