

experiencegidge@gidgegannup.info

Don't forget the Picnic by the Lake at Lake Josephine on Sunday, 28th March, 2010. From 12.00 noon until 4.30 pm. The Wandering Minstrel will again be in attendance and Jan Pittman will be artist in residence. Wine from Lake Charlotte and Hampton Estate. Gourmet Hampers $60 for two people. Tickets are already selling fast so get booked up soon at the above email or by calling 9574 7065. Experience this wonderful setting, sumptuous local produce and wines and the enthralling Wandering Minstrel.

The Small Farm Field Day – this seems months away – Sunday 6th June, 2010. We are already getting requests for ground space and this year is going to be even more exciting than last year, packed full of informative talks, demonstrations, entertainment, wonderful animals to meet and exhibitors, whose stalls are crammed with must buys.

This year the Fibre marquee will be extended with value added produce for sale. The Bush Verandah will be home to the Farmers and Growers market at $55 for a 3m x 3 m space. No marquee needed, just a table and sell and/or promote your wares. Spaces limited and Experience Gidgegannup members take priority. No wine sellers in this area. The ever popular Food and Wine Pavilion and Sustainability Marquee with all its talks and popular ideas for sustainable living. There will also be the café/entertainment area with Josephine and Goggles the Goose, the Fashion Show and the Mucky Duck band to provide entertainment from 9.30 am onwards. Food outlets will be grouped round this area so you can sit have something to eat and/or drink and enjoy the entertainment. The Animal Petting Farm and the Sheep trials will be there as well and much more.

This year $10 entrance per adult – 16 and under free.

Make your bookings by contacting Lyn Dahl on 0439 851 959 or email experiencegidge@gidgegannup.info. Prospectus available on line and by post. (9574 7065).

The EG committee are also exploring the opportunity of having an article published in Scoop Magazine and EG members can be showcased, contact Penny on 9574 7011 if you are interested.