The Small Farm Field Day – Sunday 6th June, 2010.

Prospectus now available and bookings coming in so reserve your space. This year the Fibre marquee will be extended with value added produce for sale. The Bush Verandah will be home to the Farmers and Growers market at $55 for a 3m x 3 m space. No marquee needed, just a table and sell and/or promote your wares. Spaces limited and Experience Gidgegannup members take priority. No wine sellers in this area. The ever popular Food and Wine Pavilion and Sustainability Marquee with all its talks and popular ideas for sustainable living – we have booked the Garden Gurus as our feature speakers for the day. There will also be the café/entertainment area with Josephine and Goggles the Goose, the Fashion Show and the Mucky Duck band to provide entertainment from 9.30 am onwards. Food outlets will be grouped round this area so you can sit have something to eat and/or drink and enjoy the entertainment. The Animal Petting Farm, Punch and Judy and the Sheep trials will be there as well and much more.

A full programme of talks will be scheduled throughout the day in the Sustainability Marquee and the Livestock Pavilion. A huge range of animals will be on display and the Department of Agriculture caravan will be giving out information as well. Shearing demonstrations and a whole lot more.

This year $10 entrance per adult – 16 and under free.

Make your bookings by contacting Lyn Dahl on 0439 851 959 or email experiencegidge@gidgegannup.info. Prospectus available on line and by post. (9574 7065).
