"DEATH AT A FUNERAL" (M) UK. Comedy, Dir: Frank Oz. Screens 4 Nights.....
Thurs Jan 31st, Fri 1st, Sat 2nd & Sunday 3rd Feb.

Generally whilst funerals are no laughing matter this one certainly is!!! A wrong body, the relations sit naked on rooftops, Hallucinogens are mistakenly taken as valium, the grumpy old men swear and curse, skeletons come out of the cupboard. It is all there...hilarious. The funeral to end all funerals !! Beware strong language at times.

"AS IT IS IN HEAVEN" (M) Sweden. Dir:Kay Pollack. Screens 3 Nights.....
Thurs 7th, Fri 8th & Sat 9th Feb. Sub Titles. Musical Drama.

A successful international conductor suffers a severe heart attack & he returns to the village of his childhood in an attempt to settle his busy life. There he becomes involved with the local church choir & rediscovers his love of music. An absolute MUST SEE for all music lovers. One outstanding film that has confounded the cinema industry in Australia with it's power to captivate audiences. Has been screening daily at Hayden Orpheum Cremorne (NSW) for 78 weeks.

"THE BET" (M) Aust. Drama. Screens: One Night ONLY. Sun 10th Feb.

By request. This is a rescheduled screening of the rained out sessions in December.

Dir: Mark Lee. Stars: Matthew Newton, Aden Young & Sibylla Bud. A Stockbroker, A Banker, A Bet. Desperate to prove himself, Will (Newton) a young Sydney stockbroker makes a bet with his wealthy banker friend Angus (Aden Young) with a significant stake. Obsessed, Will engages in illicit games- trading lies for money until he realises that winning at all costs comes at a considerable cost to himself. A Gripping Story of Greed & Corruption.

"ACROSS THE UNIVERSE" (PG) Screens: Fri 15th , Sat 16th & Sun 17th Feb.

USA. Dir: Julie Taymor. Musical Drama. "All you need is love" & from within those lyrics springs a story. Set in the 1960's in Britain, America & Vietnam "Across The Universe" is the love story of Lucy & Jude intertwined with the anti-war movement & social protests of the 60's featuring no less than 30 Beatles songs woven into the plot. Delightful.

"2 Days In PARIS" (MA) USA/France. Screens: Fri 22nd, Sat 23rd & Sun 24th Feb.

Dir:Julie Delpy. Romantic Comedy. Stars: Julie Delpy & Adam Goldberg as Marion & Jack. A very funny, very soulful & very interesting look at a slice of the life of this pair. Both 35, both pretentious neurotics, are travelling Europe. Venice was a disaster & they decide to set things straight by visiting Marion's French parents in Paris. Jack speaks no French, Marion's folks speak no English. Jack knew Paris was for lovers but just did not think that ALL of them had been hers!!!

"THE WHITE PLANET" (G) France. Screens: Fri 29th Feb, Sat 1st & Sun 2nd March.

Wildlife Doco. Dir: Thierry Rogobert. The Arctic, a world of frozen seas, pack ice, immense plains, tundra, glittering mountains & glaciers all inhabited by magnificent animals that have managed to adapt to conditions at the extreme limits of survival. From the beginning of winter until the triumphant return of summer this white planet is an unexpected kingdom of discovery. Those who contend global warming is a myth & that the jury is still out are not in the same courtroom as the makers of THE WHITE PLANET. Absolutely breathtaking on the BIG Screen.

"ANGEL" (M) UK/France. Dir: Francois Ozon. Screens: Fri 7th, Sat 8th & Sun 9th March.

Romantic Drama. Stars: Sam Neill, Charlotte Rampling & Romola Gari. This is Francois Ozon's first English speaking film. Set in England at the turn of the 19th Century about a destitute but very determined young English woman who ascends to the socialite ranks after authoring several romantic novels. It could be said that this film is the story of the acclaimed author Elizabeth Taylor... NOT the actress. An Engrossing Period Piece.

Coming Soon: Once, Atonement & Charlie Wilson's War
